This reputation is reflected in the numerous awards the restaurant has received over the years. A simple philosophy of using just the freshest, local ingredients, in particular from New Zealand's South Island, is still the secret to its success today. Waipara region

The Waipara Valley is situated only 40 40-minute drive north of Christchurch City. The fastest growing wine region in New Zealand, it is home to around 80 vineyards covering more than 1,200 hectares of plantings. Tucked at the base of the Teviotdale hill, it is sheltered from cool easterly winds but open to warming north west winds. The valley has three general sites: the valley floor, hill slopes, or river terraces. The soil types include: gravely deposits on flats and terraces in the central and western part of the valley, limestone-derived clays on hillsides and valley floor to the eastern side, and gravely loams over alluvial subsoil in the southern part of the region. The north-facing sloping terrain provides an ideal sun trap for fruiting vines.

This gives each vineyard unique characteristics that contribute to a range of wine styles. The "Terroir" combined with the long hot autumn period helps produce unique, richer, spicier Pinot Noirs and Rieslings – regional specialities. Other varieties of note include Pinot Gris, Chardonnay, and Sauvignon Blanc. Vineyards of note include Pegasus Bay with its award-winning restaurant and Mud House, which also has a cafe linked to the cellar door.

Another great local attraction is The Weka Pass Railway. This historic rural railway uses both vintage steam and diesel-electric locomotives on 12.8 km of scenic line through the unique limestone beauty of the Weka Pass out of Waipara, where superior weather patterns provide crystal clear air and high sunshine hours. Open most Sundays and public holidays during the summer months.

A Taste of Greystone at Greystone Wines

Situated in Waipara, Greystone is dedicated to sustainable, organic winemaking that captures the essence of their unique terroir. "A Taste of Greystone" offers an exclusive tasting of premium wines, carefully selected to showcase the best of what the vineyard has to offer. The experience includes Vineyard Ferment Pinot Noir, Erins Block Chardonnay, and Thomas Brother Pinot Noir, each expertly paired with a small dish crafted in-house using locally sourced, organic ingredients. These pairings are designed to enhance the unique characteristics of each wine, providing an elevated tasting experience. Guided by a knowledgeable team, explore the intricate connections between the wines and the culinary creations that accompany them, while learning about the regenerative practices that define the vineyard's approach to viticulture.

Your accommodation: Greystone PurePod

The Greystone PurePod is set high above the award-winning Greystone vineyard, less than an hour north of Christchurch, right in the heart of the Waipara Valley wine producing region.
